"For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven." This passage from the Bible, Psalms 119: 89, comprises the Golden Text to be used in the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, March 18.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Substance," and included in the Bible selections is, "Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: . . . And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. And they did all eat, and were filled" (Matthew 15: 32, 36, 37).

The following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included in the Lesson-Sermon, "The miracle introduces no disorder, but unfolds the primal order, establishing the Science of God's unchangeable law. . . . There is to-day danger of repeating the offence of the Jews by limiting the Holy One of Israel and asking: 'Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?' What cannot God do?" (p. 135).

Many residents of Wellesley and Weston are interested in the March 20 performance of the new Elliott Nugent play, "A Place of Our Own," at the Wilbur Theatre, which will benefit the New England Hospital for Women and Children. Wellesley members of the Benefit Committee include Mrs. Charles F. Eaton, Jr., Mrs. Stanley R. Black, Mrs. Henry O. Lowell and Mrs. Donald G. Morse. Among those who have already made reservations for next Tuesday evening are Mrs. George A. Clapp and Mrs. Holden P. Williams of Wellesley.

Wallet Worn Out But Still A Very Cherished Keepsake

Saturday, Feb. 10, 1945

Dear Mr. Larsson:

I can't blame you for saying to yourself that "it's about time." Yes! I've received the wallet some time ago, and I'm just getting around to thanking you and the townspeople for it. But I'm sure that after I finish this letter you will forgive me.

The wallet to me is the finest gift that any serviceman from Wellesley could receive. Although my wallet is worn and torn and no longer in use, I refuse to throw it away. Right now it is laying in my locker and it will always stay with me, as that seal will never be destroyed.

I've been in the Navy for over two years, and 20 months of that time I've spent at sea, and have had very little time off, as sea duty really keeps us on the go.

I've been to quite a few countries throughout Europe and the Caribbean, etc., and after leaving the Atlantic I was sent to the Pacific and for the past year or so I've had the thrill of being a part of a "fast carrier task force." And as I'm still out here, censor regulaitons forbid me to mention the places I've been and what we have done. However, if you read the papers, etc, you'll have a pretty good idea what the Navy in the Pacific is doing.

Yes, Mr. Larsson, I've covered a good part of the world and I'm more than convinced that good old Wellesley is the only place to be.

For a while the TOWNSMAN got away from me, but again I'm receiving it on time. Those few pages really help us to "carry on."

Sincerely,
KOORKEN PILBOSIAN, EM 3/c,
